

BARHYTE EARNS MORE HARDWARE IN 2014 WORLD-WIDE MUSTARD COMPETITION Saucy Mama, Haus Barhyte Brands Each Nab Coveted Award

Pendleton, Or. (June 30, 2014) – The trophy case at Barhyte Specialty Foods is going to need an expansion in the near future, as the gourmet condiment company has added yet more medals to its showcase. Saucy Mama's fan-favorite Dill Mustard took home the gold medal in the Herb/Veggie Category at this year's annual World-Wide Mustard Competition, held at the National Mustard Museum in Middleton, WI. The company was also awarded the silver medal in the Garlic Category for their classic Haus Barhyte Smoky Garlic Onion Mustard. These mustards were among nearly 300 entries- coming as far away as Japan and New Zealand- that battled for top-flavor honors in the prestigious competition this year.

These two flavors, whether found in the company's Saucy Mama, Haus Barhyte, Willamette Valley or former Food and Wine label, always do particularly well at the World-Wide Mustard Competition.

Since the program began in 1996, Barhyte Specialty Foods has earned more than 45 World-Wide Mustard Competition awards.

“We’re up against some pretty tough competition,” explains the company’s CEO, Chris Barhyte. “So we’re thrilled that we continually come out on top with a medal or two each year. These top selling flavors are becoming long-time classics!”

ABOUT BARHYTE SPECIALTY FOODS

Barhyte Specialty Foods, based out of Pendleton, Oregon, has roots dating back 200 years and 6,000 miles away in Germany, where Jacobus Barhyte first created a sweet-and-sour mustard that he brought to the US. Many generations later, Jan and Susan Barhyte began selling mustard from the original recipe, as well as other signature creations, through their Swift and Martin Station Deli. Thanks to overwhelming demand, the family launched their own manufacturing operation in 1977. Today, the company offers more than 65 award-winning mustards, marinades, sauces, and other condiments through the Barhyte Specialty Foods and the Saucy Mama brand, as well as through co-branded and private label relationships.
